They arrived at 9.55. There was an impressive silence as they filed in. When the jury appeared, Judge Garry enjoined absolute silence. There was a whispered consultation between the judge and the clerk, when the werdiet, as follows, was read:

"We, the jury, find the defendants, August Spies Michael Schwab, Samuel"

The excitement of the crowd in front of the redected about the jury appeared. August Spies Michael Schwab, Samuel as they filed to order at 9.54. The prisoners were the pury few with the jury?

What speech had the greatest weight with the jury?

Grinnell's. It was not an ornate speech, but it showed the honesty of the man showed how earnest he was. He made everything so plain we fell into his way of looking at the case; but in doing that we were only obeying our judgment. I think at the conclusion of the evidence and without any speechmaking at all we would have arrived at the supreme court follows the legal precedents it is committed to that this verdict will be reversed.
